ABOUT

KIHOMI and NZUNGA serve as a vital link between International Ministries and the Haitian Baptist Convention. They preach in churches and serve through a variety of ministries. Nzunga teaches theology at the Christian University of Northern Haiti, trains assistant professors, and administers a scholarship program for elementary through university-age students. He manages the goat and pig projects for children, the clean water project for communities, and the Cap-Haitien Eye Clinic. Kihomi works in counseling, women's health, community health evangelism, and economic development. She also mentors girls and provides scholarships to students in need. Kihomi coordinates and advises the women's association of the convention, representing women of all the Baptist denominations of Haiti at international conferences.

“ MINISTRY STORY

Greetings! We pray that you are all doing fine and give thanks to the Almighty God. Those of you who follow the news about our beloved Haiti know that the country has faced many crises, but now is facing a never-before-seen crisis. The insecurity is rampant and widespread. Gas shortages have made worse a situation that was already worse in itself. Food is in short supply. Many people are afraid to leave their area.

In spite of safety concerns, the staff of the eye clinic bravely go out week after week to consult and treat patients in the comfort of their homes. They put their lives in danger. An example is when the staff of the eye clinic left Cap-Haitien early to go to the village of Ndondo where over 160 people were on the list waiting for consultations. The team was able to consult with 106 out of the 160, but since it starts getting dark around 4:00 PM, the team had to close early and head back to Cap-Haitien. Besides the general concern for safety, the team wisely used the little bit of gasoline that they had. Having a dependable truck helps them move quickly without fear of breaking down.

Thank you always for supporting the mission of the Cap-Haitien eye clinic. Your help makes possible these dangerous trips to the remote villages.

SCRIPTURE

“When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you? The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine you did for me.’”

Matthew 25:38-40 (NIV)
